CHARACTER NOTES

TECHWIRE used to fly choppers for a small corp in Central America. The Ares Dragon used to be a company command post until the corp dissolved during a corporate war. Techwire flew north to avoid talking to the competitors. He now lives in the helicopter and makes his living as a hi-tech hitman, smuggler or no-questions-asked-high-threat pilot. His real identity is listed as MIA in Central America, and he has been exposed to so many experimental corp CW psycho-agents that even he doesn't remember it.
